SECURITY ORDER NO. 6

CENSORSHIP AND COMMUNICATIONS

1. CENSORSHIP.

1.01. All communications by wire, wireless, radio or radio-telephone, mail, messenger, signal and every other means of entering or leaving the Territory of Hawaii Military Area, or passing between any of the islands within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area, or between the Territory of Hawaii Military Area and any vessel or aircraft shall be censored under U. S. Censorship Regulations issued by the Director of Censorship or under such additional regulations and instructions as the undersigned Military Commander may from time to time promulgate.

1.02. No person shall evade or attempt to evade the submission of any such communication to such censorship, or use or attempt to use any code or other device unauthorized by such censorship for the purpose of concealing from such censorship the intended meaning of any such communication, or for the purpose of transmitting any information whatever, or falsify any information for the purpose of concealing from such censorship the identity of any person who is a party to or is referred to in any such communication, or violate or attempt to violate by any other means or in any other manner the rules and regulations of such censorship.

2. RESTRICTIONS ON SENDING, TRANSMITTING, OR RECEIVING COMMUNICATIONS FOR MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES OF THE UNITED STATES OR FOR MERCHANT SEAMEN.

2.01. No person shall, within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area for or on behalf of or at the request, direction, or order of any member of the armed forces of the United States within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area, mail, deposit for mailing or delivery by mail, or attempt to mail, any card, letter, subscription to a newspaper, magazine, or other publication published or printed and published outside the Territory of Hawaii Military Area, any order or request for the entry of any such subscription, any communication of any kind or nature, or any parcel, package, publication, or other property of any kind, to any person or place outside the said Territory of Hawaii Military Area, regardless of whether or not such card, letter, subscription, order or request for the entry thereof, communication, parcel, package, publication, or other property be the property of the said member of the armed forces of the United States or of the person to whom mailed, or of the said person so mailing the same; nor shall any person receive any such property within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area for the purpose of so mailing the same or receive any such property within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area for or on behalf of or at the request, direction or order of any member of the armed forces of the United States within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area. The provisions of this paragraph 2.01 shall not be applicable to any employee or representative of the United States Post Office Department or other federal agency or department who, within the scope and course of his official duties and employment, mails or receives for transmittal in the United States mail any cards, letters, subscriptions or orders or requests for the entry thereof, communications, parcels, packages, publications, or other property to which reference hereinabove is made; nor shall the provisions of this paragraph be applicable to any publisher of a newspaper, book, magazine, or other publication within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area who so mails, or so receives for such mailing, a newspaper, book, magazine, or other publication published by such publisher, provided the return address imprinted, stamped, or written on said publication or on the wrapper or container in which said publication is mailed is that of such publisher, and provided that nothing is written, printed, or shown in or on said publication or the wrapper, envelope, or container in which the said publication is mailed, that will indicate that the same was mailed, or received for mailing, for or on behalf of or at the request, direction, or order of any member of the armed forces of the United States.

2.02. No person who is not a member of the armed forces of the United States, shall, within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area, send or transmit, cause to be sent or transmitted, attempt to send or transmit, or receive for the purpose of transmitting, by wireless, radio, cable, telegraph, radio-telephone, or telephone to any point, place or destination outside the Territory of Hawaii Military Area, or from any point, place, or destination on an island within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area to a point, place, or destination on another island within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area, or leave, deliver to, or place with any wireless, radio, cable, telegraph, radio-telephone, or telephone company for the purpose of having it so sent or so transmitted, any information, statement, message, or communication of any kind or nature, for or on behalf of or at the request, direction, or order of any member of the armed forces of the United States or of any merchant seaman within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area. No person shall receive within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area at the request, direction, or order of any member of the armed forces of the United States or of any merchant seaman any information, statement, message, or communication of any kind or nature which has been transmitted to such person, by wireless, radio, cable, telegraph, radio-telephone, or telephone, from a place outside the Territory of Hawaii Military Area, or from a place on another island within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area other than the island on which such person is situated at the time that such information, statement, message or communication is received by said person. The provisions of this paragraph 2.02 shall not be applicable to any member of the Signal Corps of the Army of the United States or of any similar department or agency in any of the other components of the armed forces of the United States, or to any wireless, radio, cable, telegraph, radio-telephones, or telephone company with respect to any information, statement, or message transmitted by any such company in accordance with censorship regulations established by the armed forces or other censorship agencies of the United States; nor shall the provisions of this paragraph prohibit a bank within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area from providing for the delivery of money to, at, or within a place either within or outside the Territory of Hawaii Military Area, for or on behalf of or at the request, direction, or order of any member of the armed forces of the United States or of any merchant seaman within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area, provided such member of said armed forces or said merchant seaman for or by whom the said money is so delivered is duly authorized by competent military, naval, or other federal authority to so deliver, or cause to be so delivered, said money.

2.03. No person who is not a member of the armed forces of the United States shall, within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area, file or originate a radio, or radio-telephone call to any other place, point or destination either within or outside the Territory of Hawaii Military Area, for the purpose of allowing or providing a means for a member of the armed forces of the United States to participate in the telephone call from the point of origin, or with the knowledge that a member of the armed forces of the United States is going to participate in the call from the point of origin, or for the purpose of making contact with a member of the armed forces of the United States, other than the party called at the point of destination, or with the knowledge that a member of the armed forces of the United States other than the party at the point of destination is going to participate in the call.

2.04. No person other than a member of the armed forces of the United States shall mail any card, letter, parcel, package, publication, or property of any kind in a Post Office of the Army or Navy of the United States, or deposit for mailing in any such Post Office any card, letter, parcel, package, publication, or property of any kind, or in any manner use any such Post Office, unless first duly authorized to do so by competent military or naval authority.

3. FILING OF CABLE AND RADIO MESSAGES BY MERCHANT SEAMEN.

3.01. In order to insure the security of vessels of the United States or of Allied Nations, any merchant seaman on the Island of Oahu desiring to send a cable or radio message shall obtain approval for the filing of such cable or radio message at the office of the District Cable Censor, 1160 Bishop Street, Honolulu, T. H., and any merchant seaman on the Island of Molokai so desiring to send a cable or radio message shall obtain the necessary approval for the filing of such cable or radio message at the office of the field censor located at the local Command Headquarters, and any merchant seaman on the islands of Hawaii, Maui, or Kauai desiring to send a cable or radio message shall obtain approval for the filing of such cable or radio message at the office of the field censor located at the main telephone exchange on the island on which such merchant seaman shall be at the time that he proposes to send such message. No merchant seaman shall file any cable or radio message directly with the office of any commercial cable or radio company, or bank, until approval to do so has been first obtained as herein required.

3.02. The term "merchant seaman" or "merchant seamen" as used in this Security Order, or in any other Proclamation, restriction, order, rule, regulation or instruction of the undersigned Military Commander, shall include, and hereby is defined to mean, any of the following, to wit: Personnel (officers, crew members, and others) attached to, employed on, or on duty aboard vessels controlled by the United States or nations allied with it in the present world wide conflict, except Army and Navy personnel, who are governed by appropriate Army and Navy censorship regulations, and civilian or military personnel employed on or on duty aboard vessels of the Army Transport Service, who have already been directed to file cable and radio messages at an Army Post Office.

3.03. Merchant seamen, except persons having a bona fide permanent residence in the Territory of Hawaii Military Area, shall not give or use any address (including an address in care of a bank or communications company) within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area for the receipt of mail or cable or radio communications.

4. PHOTOFINISHERS.

4.01. The term "photofinisher," as used in this Title 4, shall include, and hereby is defined to mean, any person who, within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area, engages in photographic developing, printing, enlarging, or any other form of photofinishing work, or owns, has in his possession, custody or control, or operates or handles, photographic developing, printing, enlarging or any other form of photofinishing material or equipment.

4.02. Every photofinisher, within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area, shall register with the Central Identification Bureau. Any person who shall come within the category of a photofinisher subsequent to the date of the promulgation of this Security Order, shall register with the Central Identification Bureau within ten (10) days after coming within the aforesaid category. A photofinisher's certificate will be issued to each registrant, except that no photofinisher's certificate will be issued to any enemy alien registrant unless authority for the issuance of said certificate first is obtained by the enemy alien registrant from the designated representative of the undersigned Military Commander. No person other than the person to whom such photofinisher's certificate duly has been issued by the said Central Identification Bureau shall possess or use in any manner said photofinisher's certificate.

4.03. The provisions of paragraphs 4.01 and 4.02 above shall not be applicable to any member of, or any person employed by, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, or the Office of the District Postal Censor, Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, or any member of the United States Army, United States Navy, or of any other component of the armed forces of the United States, including Post Exchanges of the United States Army and Ships Service of the United States Navy, who, within the scope and course of official duties, engages in photographic developing, printing, enlarging or any other form of photofinishing work, or has in his possession, custody or control, or operates or handles, photographic developing, printing, enlarging or any other form of photofinishing material or equipment.

4.04. No person, shall, within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area, sell, lease, consign or make a gift of, or in any manner make available for use, any photographic developing, printing, enlarging or any other form of photofinishing material or equipment to any person who does not present a Central Identification Bureau photofinisher's certificate at the time of such sale, lease, consignment, or gift, or when the photographic developing, printing, enlarging or other form of photofinishing material or equipment is made available for use.

4.05. When directed by the Theater Censor, United States Army Forces, Central Pacific Base Command, or his representatives, photofinishers will submit all of the negatives and prints within their possession, custody or control, regardless of ownership, for censoring, to the aforesaid Theater Censor or his representatives.

4.06. The Theater Censor, United States Army Forces, Central Pacific Base Command, and his representatives shall be afforded access, at all times, to every photofinisher's laboratory, darkroom and establishment for the purpose of censoring all negatives and prints.

4.07. The Theater Censor, United States Army Forces, Central Pacific Base Command, and his representatives hereby are authorized and empowered to take up and retain all negatives and prints which, in the opinion of the said Theater Censor, or his said representatives, violate any censorship rule or regulation, or any proclamation, restriction, order, rule, regulation or instruction of the undersigned Military Commander. Said Theater Censor and his representatives hereby are authorized and empowered to destroy all of the aforesaid objectionable and violative negatives and prints after having retained them for sixty (60) days, unless, within said period of time, the owner, or person entitled to possession, of said objectionable and violative negatives or prints files a written protest with the aforementioned Theater Censor or his representatives, provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall authorize a photofinisher to file such a protest unless said photofinisher owns the negatives or prints relative to which the protest is filed.

4.08. No person, within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area, shall send or remove, cause to be sent or removed, or attempt to send or remove, by any means whatsoever, to any point, place, or destination outside the Territory of Hawaii Military Area, any undeveloped or unexposed film unless permission first is obtained from the Theater Censor, United States Army Forces, Central Pacific Base Command. The provisions of this paragraph 4.08 shall not be applicable to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, or to any department or agency of the United States Army, United States Navy, or of the other components of the armed forces of the United States including Post Exchanges of the United States Army and Ships Service of the United States Navy, which, within the scope and course of official business, sends undeveloped or unexposed film to any point, place, or destination outside the Territory of Hawaii Military Area; nor shall the provisions of this paragraph prohibit the exportation of unexposed film by any person who duly is licensed by the Foreign Economic Administration to export unexposed film.

5. PHOTOGRAPHIC MATERIALS RULES.

5.01. The sale or other disposition of photographic supplies or equipment to any consignee in abnormal or excessive quantities by any wholesale dealer or importer from stocks on hand or to be received which would operate to deprive the use thereof, or otherwise interfere with the supply of, such supplies or equipment to the military or naval authorities is prohibited.

5.02. Prior to delivery to any consignee by any wholesale dealer or importer of photographic supplies or equipment of quantities from stocks on hand or to be received which are abnormal or in excess of amounts normally disposed of, such dealer or importer shall secure a clearance permit from the Office of Internal Security, authorizing such sale or disposition.

6. CAMERAS AND PHOTOGRAPHY.

6.01. No person other than a person first duly authorized to do so by competent military or naval authorities shall use any camera on any beach in the Territory of Hawaii Military Area or use any camera while in, on, or about any airplane, boat, or ship, in waters or air within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area or encompassing the said area.

6.02. No person other than a person first duly authorized to do so by competent military or naval authorities shall photograph or take pictures from, in, on, or of, any military or naval reservation, post, arsenal, proving ground, range, camp, fort, yard, station, district, or restricted military or naval area, or any portion thereof; any shoreline within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area; or any military or naval installation, equipment, aircraft, weapons, ammunition, vehicles, ships, vessels, instruments, engines, manufacturing machinery, tools, devices, or any other equipment whatsoever in the possession or use of the Army or Navy, or in the course of experimentation, development, or manufacture, for delivery to and use by the Army or Navy.

7. CARRIAGE OF INFORMATION TO THE MAINLAND.

7.01. No person shall carry to the mainland, or elsewhere for transportation to the mainland, by clipper, ship, or otherwise, any written or printed matter whatsoever, or any photographs, sketches, or drawings, which have not been censored and so marked by a duly authorized censor.

7.02. No person shall send or deliver to another person any written or printed matter whatsoever, or any photographs, sketches, or drawings, for the purpose of having such other person carry such matter to the mainland to avoid censorship.

7.03. No person shall evade, or attempt to evade, censorship by indicating on any envelope, or other container, that the matter contained therein has been censored by a duly authorized censor, or by the re-use of censor labels or by the use of envelopes or other containers upon which a censor's stamp, or other means indicating censorship, has been used; or to attempt in any other manner or by any other means to evade the local censorship requirements.

8. PIGEONS.

8.01. No person shall without the express written permission of the Office of Internal Security transport, carry, or deliver any carrier or homing pigeon, or any other pigeon or bird having the characteristics and ability to carry and transmit a message, code, or writing, from one place to another within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area for the purpose of permitting it, or causing it, to fly.

8.02. No person shall send or transmit any message, writing, or code by means of such birds as are described in paragraph 8.01 above within the Territory of Hawaii Military Area.

8.03. The provisions of paragraph 8.01 and 8.02 above shall not apply to the armed forces of the United States or other governmental units thereof.

9. JAPANESE MOTION PICTURE FILM.

9.01. Definitions: As used in this Security Order, the term "Japanese motion picture film" shall include the following:

- Any motion picture film made, manufactured or produced in Japan.
- Any motion picture film made, manufactured or produced under Japanese control; and
- Any motion picture film having titles or sound track in the Japanese language.

9.02. The Signal Officer, United States Army Forces, Central Pacific Base Command, hereby is designated and directed to regulate and control the handling, custody, use and disposition of all Japanese motion picture film in the Territory of Hawaii Military Area, and shall have full power and authority to require the storage or destruction of any such film as he may deem necessary or advisable in the interests of military necessity.

9.03. Any person having in his possession any Japanese motion picture film shall forthwith file a descriptive report listing such film, giving such information as may be required. Such report shall be filed with said Signal Officer or his representatives.

10. RADIO REGULATIONS.
